This is subject to the provisions of the Sindh Factories Act, 2015 (Sindh Act No. XIII of 2016), the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act IV of 1936), and other relevant labour laws.

(b) The term "wages" shall be interpreted as defined in Section 2(xix) of the Sindh Minimum Wages Act, 2015.
3. In cases where an establishment employs workers in occupations not included in the attached schedule (Annexure-A), it shall be the responsibility of the Manager or Employer to classify such occupations under the appropriate category in the schedule and pay wages accordingly. The classification and wage details must also be reported immediately to the Chairman, Sindh Minimum Wages Board for any necessary action.
4. The recommended wage rates shall apply to all types of workers, including time-rated, whole-time, probationary, temporary, and piece-rated workers.
5. The proposed minimum rates of wages shall not be considered as maximum limits. Any wages currently being paid above the prescribed minimum rates in the annexed schedule shall not be reduced by any Manager or Employer.

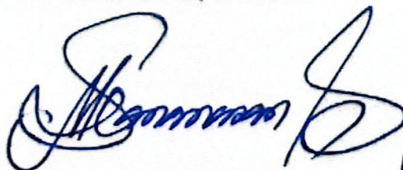

II/IV

6. No employer shall pay any worker engaged in an occupation or trade listed in the annexed schedule (Annexure-A) at a rate lower than the corresponding minimum wage specified therein.
7. Adult female workers employed in the specified industries shall receive the same minimum wage as their male counterparts when performing work of equal value.
8. All workers in these industries shall continue to receive any existing facilities provided by the employer, including residential accommodation, water, electricity, medical aid, and recreational amenities.
9. The provisions of the Sindh Factories Act, 2015 and other applicable labour laws shall apply in general, and particularly in matters related to daily and weekly working hours, overtime, rest days, and similar conditions of employment.

11. The issue of maintaining wage differentials among workers with varying levels of experience and efficiency—either within the same occupation or across different occupations—is left to the discretion of employers. Such differentiation may be determined unilaterally or through collective agreements, provided that no worker's wage falls below the minimum rate prescribed under the Sindh Minimum Wages Act, 2015.
12. Nothing in Section 9(b) shall affect a worker's right to receive wages higher than the declared minimum rate, where such higher wages are granted under an agreement, contract, award, or as a customary practice. Similarly, workers shall continue to enjoy any established amenities or benefits they are entitled to.
13. The detailed schedule of minimum wage rates proposed for different categories of semi-skilled, skilled, and highly skilled workers across the 60 specified industries is attached as (Annexure-A).
